(April 22, 2010) The Union Pacific Railroad will be closing the Patrick Street railroad crossing for repairs on Thursday, April 29, 2010. The closure will begin at 9:00am and the crossing will re-open at 3:00pm. During the closure, citizens may access both sides of Patrick Street from Marvin, Water and Main streets.

A spokesperson from Union Pacific Railroad indicated that due to the nature of the maintenance and repairs that will be taking place, full closure of this rail crossing during this period is necessary.

For any questions regarding this scheduled maintenance and closure of this crossings, please contact Union Pacific Railroad at (214)402-6235.
